Hi Joseph,

Is a pleasure be assisting you today. Joseph as far as we know, we don't have a barefoot policy, Walmart respects all our customers for that reason we don't have restrictions of this kind.

I hope this information will be useful for you. Enjoy your weekend!

Sincerely,

Paul R.

Hi Joseph,

Thank you for bringing your concern to our attention and I'm really sorry, I'm finding your email a bit unclear, are you inquiring about "barefooting" the sport, or are you inquiring regarding being barefoot directly in a store?

Please get back to me with as much information as you can so we can properly solve your inquiry.

Sincerely,

Lois G
